The University of Alcalá is delighted to invite you to the International Conference Towards Entrepreneurial Skillship: the role of higher education and business cooperation in a global era, which will take place on June 7th, 2017 (next Wednesday) in Brussels.

The conference will be an opportunity to learn more about innovative entrepreneurial material and a unique placement scheme aimed to improve practical and transversal skills therefore fostering student employability.

Academics, students, professionals, the European Commission, and experts from various fields will share their vision, experience, good practices regarding student employability, modern teaching methods and methodologies for the development of entrepreneurial skills. Panel discussions will allow for sharing viewpoints about the expectations and opportunities for university-business cooperation and the skills young graduates need to succeed in the 21st century labour market.

Please register here and notice that the deadline for registration has been extended until June 6th, 2017.
