

Title: Regions in Recovery - Global e-festival

This summer the Regions in Recovery e-festival will welcome researchers and policymakers alongside a social and well-being programme. It will be a research-led celebration, featuring key players in the field of regional and urban research and policy.

The festival will be structured by themes related to the re-emergence of regions and cities following the pandemic.

Learn more about the festival and register here.

Smart Cities

Transport