

Title: European Year of Rail Launch event

The launch event for the European Year of Rail is a unique opportunity to debate the benefits of rail for travellers, the economy and the climate, as well as the challenges facing the creation of a truly single European rail transport space without borders. The event is organised by the European Commission and the Portuguese Presidency.

Learn more about the programme here.

Transport