

Title: COP 26: How to turn a city into a smart and net-zero city?

A European Union side event at the COP 26 conference will discuss how to implement smart solutions for urban energy, mobility and water systems. The session will feature perspectives from local authorities, the private sector, finance experts and academia.

European and international city projects alike will share and discuss essential issues concerning the decarbonisation of urban areas.

Learn more and register here - please note the times on the COP 26 website are in GMT.

Blue Growth
Energy & Climate Change
Smart Cities
Transport