

Title: ERRIN is looking for a Policy and Communications Officer (deadline: 27 May)
Wed, 11/05/2022 - 12:00

ERRIN is looking for a Policy and Communications Officer to join its Secretariat! This is an excellent opportunity to join our dynamic team in Brussels, as the network continues to support members to enhance their regional and local research and innovation capacities and further develop their R&I ecosystems.

Job description:

The objectives of the Policy and Communications Officer position include supporting ERRIN in delivering high-quality services to members, raising the profile of ERRIN within the EU research and innovation field in Brussels, and contributing to the network's overall communication strategy.

Candidate profile:

We are looking for a colleague with a minimum of three years relevant experience. Candidates should be knowledgeable about EU R&I policy and funding programmes and have experience working with local and regional authorities or regional actors, interpersonal skills and excellent command of English (both written and spoken). Find the full list of requirements in the attached job description.

What we offer:

This role in ERRIN's energetic team offers a permanent contract with a competitive monthly salary between €2400-3000 depending on experience. Other benefits include 13th month, hospitalisation and healthcare insurance, meal vouchers and a monthly travel pass for Brussels.

How to apply:

To apply, please download and read the full job description in the attached document, then send a motivation letter together with a CV to Teresa.Vio@errin.eu, clearly stating the possible starting date and contact details.

Please mention 'Policy and Communications Officer vacancy' in the subject of the email.

The deadline to apply is 27 May at 17:00 CET. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.
