

Regional development in light of research infrastructures – the importance of ESS & MAX IV for local, regional, national and European innovation capacity

Programme overview

- 09:00 – 09:30 Welcome and registration
- 09:30 – 09:45 Introduction from the chair of the Regional development committee in Region Skåne – the impact of ESS & MAX IV for regional development in Skåne
Anna Jähnke, Region Skåne
- 09:45 – 10:00 Remarks from the Swedish presidency of the European Council
Ana Beramendi, Counsellor for Research and Space, Permanent Representation of Sweden to the EU
- 10:00 – 10:15 Keynote on the ESS and MAX IV ecosystem
Heiner Linke, Deputy dean at the Faculty of Engineering, Lund University and Chair of the ESS & MAX IV group of Skåne Research and Innovation Council (FIRS)
- 10:15 – 10:45 Reflections on the impact of large research infrastructures on local, national and European innovation capacity and competitiveness
European Commission, confirmed and speaker to be announced
Heiner Linke, Deputy dean, Lund University (TBC)
- 10:45 – 11:15 Coffee break and networking mingle
- 11:15 – 11:45 Reflections from European regions - what impact does large research infrastructures have for the regional development in host regions?
Speakers to be announced
- 11:45 – 12:15 Panel – what are the needs from enterprises and ecosystems around large research facilities in order to accelerate interactions between research, development and market?
Muriel Attané, Secretary General, European Association of Research and Technology Organisations (EARTO)
Hortense Lutz Hermellin, Chair of the management board, European Regions Research and Innovation Network (ERRIN)
Christian Lindfors, CEO, Science Village Scandinavia AB
- 12:15 – 12:25 Q&A-session
- 12:25 – 12:30 Closing remarks
Anna Jähnke, Region Skåne
- 12:30 – 13:30 Lunch in the reception of the Nordic House